

Inspired by life personified by nature, local sculptress Jo Wooler, has been designing and creating superlative sculptures from marine grade stainless steel since 2002.

Creating with her own hands, Jo provides discerning art collectors, interior designers, architects and developers an exclusive investment to last lifetimes.

Recognised internationally for her phenomenal work, Jo has exhibited in many solo, group and juried exhibitions including the Atrium Art Space at the WTC (Amsterdam), AAF (NYC), National Maritime Museum (Paris), Andemic Art Gallery (New Caledonia), Majlis Gallery (Dubai), as well as select galleries throughout Australia.

Her wall mounted, free standing and suspended sculptures complement the innovative designs and inspiring layouts of modern architecture. Her work is found in many collections furnishing private homes, corporate offices, airports, yachts, hotels, resorts, hospitals, chapels and public spaces.
